DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 4-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 4 recites the limitation "at least one of said handling stations" in line 11. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Previously in the claim, only one handling station is recited.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

4. Claims 4-14, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by FOCKE USP 6290448. FOCKE discloses a similar device comprising a(n):

- Receiving station (items are received into the system; fig. 2)
- At least one handling or working station (39 or 41 or 43)
- Stacking station (30; items are stacked; fig. 1)
- Transfer means (19) for transferring items from the receiving station (31-33) to the stacking station (30)
- Wherein said handling means comprises a support structure (18 or 34) and a picking-up head (43)
- Said picking-up head comprising a support member (44) rotatably mounted around a vertical axis, multiplicity of spacers (unlabelled; just below support member 44; spaces the support member 44 from the holding means 45) carried by said support members (44) and extending downwards, and a holding means (45) carried by spacers (spaces the support member 44 from the holding means 45)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 15 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Focke '448 in view of Padovani '208.

Focke discloses all of the claim limitations and discloses receiving products from somewhere in general. He does not disclose a thermoforming press with cut and form mould having a suction plate arranged to pick up mouldings of thermoformed products and discharge the products to said receiving station (31-33; fig. 1) .

Padovani teaches the use of a thermoforming press with cut and form mould having a suction plate (C1/L64-70) arranged to pick up mouldings of thermoformed products and discharge the products to said receiving station for the purpose of providing for a means to produce thermoformed products and for the purpose of providing for a means to remove moulding and transfer them to a receiving station (C1/L65+).

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have employed the use of a thermoforming press with cut and form mould having a suction plate (C1/L64-70) arranged to pick up mouldings of thermoformed products and discharge the products to said receiving station for the purpose of providing for a means make thermoformed products and for the purpose of providing for a means to remove moulding and transfer them to a receiving station.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
